

Pathways to ARoH Registration

	Applicants highest Qualification	Supporting documents required	Review and evaluation by ARoH	Registration into tier level and conditions	Homeopathic practice rights	CPD hours annually in homeopathy
1	Bachelor degree or higher (science or health science) in homeopathy	Supporting documentation Required ¹ Plus PLI ² , SFA ³ , WWC ⁴	Accredited course AQF7 (in Australia) or Australian equivalent	Registration into tier one. No RCC required. CAM legal exam required VETASSESS if overseas applicant.	Yes	20
2	BHSc degree or health related science degree or higher (non homeopathy) plus post graduate homeopathic studies and/including clinical practicum ^{5*}	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	Accredited course AQF7 (in Australia) or Australian equivalent. Post graduate studies will be of at least one year and have certificate of attendance.	Register tier one No RCC CAM legal exam required	YES	20

¹ Formal awards and academic transcripts.

² Public liability Insurance no less than $2,000,000, for each individual claim.

³ Senior/level two first aid training that is current.

⁴ Working with Children Check, if applicable

⁵ *20 initial cases and 20 return cases under direct (face to face) supervision by suitable ARoH approved supervisor.

Applicants who have qualified through an ARoH accredited course may have direct registration into their appropriate tier once CAM legal assessment and PLI, SFA, WWC are care current or completed
3	BHSc degree or health related science degree (non-homeopathic course) plus homeopathic subjects No clinical practicum	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	BHSc degree AQF 7 or Australian equivalent plus homeopathic electives studies	Tier 2 if conditional registration or 3 if not in practice	Conditional registration until clinical practicum* +/- 12 months case supervision attained with ARoH supervisor	20 if in practice or 10 if not in practice (tier 3)
4	BHSc degree (non -homeopathic) plus minimal post grad homeopathic studies and minimal clinical practicum in homeopathy.	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	BHSc degree AQF 7 or Australian equivalent plus some homeopathic studies < two years study time	RCC Conditional reg Tier 1 CAM legal	Conditional with 12 month case supervision attained with ARoH supervision plus, case studies to the 20/20 level.	20
5	Advanced diploma in homeopathy	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	AQF 6 or Australian equivalent	Tier 2 CAM legal No RCC required	yes	20
6	Advanced diploma in a health science (non-homeopathic) plus formal homeopathic post qualification studies of at least one year and clinical practicum of 20/20	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	AQF 6 or Australian equivalent	RCC Tier 2 CAM legal	yes	20
7	Overseas applicants with formal qualification equal to AQF 6 or 7 in homeopathy or BHSc or science degree plus formal post graduate studies in homeopathy	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	VETASSESS will determine validity of training institute. ARoH will determine whether tier 1 or 2.	Tier one or 2 RCC international VETASSESS CAM legal	Yes	20
8	Individual with no formal qualifications but 'in practice' (= self-taught)	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	Assessment on an individual basis looking at studies, experience, practice experience.	T3/ 2 CAM legal RCC	Conditional	20

9	Homeopath, AQF 6 or 7 completed in Australia, or overseas applicant No clinical practicum	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	Assessment on an individual basis. Course hours and clinical experience to be reviewed	T3 Then T1 or T2 RCC, CAM and VETASSESS if overseas applicant	Conditional registration until clinical practicum or 12-month case supervision attained with ARoH supervisor	0 then 20 (once clinical supervision commences)
10	Naturopaths AQF 6 or 7 + acute homeopathic studies (DOMESTIC)	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	Consideration to courses that are Naturopathic but include considerable homeopathy or those prior to 2000	T3 Conditional: acute Can progress to T2 after RCC or after further formal homeopathic studies, conditional for 12 months, or successfully completing ARoH workbook.	Conditional to acute prescribing only	20 Using homeopathy in practice 10 if not using homeopathy in practice
11	Naturopath AQF 6 or 7 (no formal homeopathic studies or clinic practicum)	Supporting documents required If conditional Plus PLI, SFA, WWC	Consideration given to any: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • post graduate studies and courses undertaken in homeopathy, • percentage of homeopathy used in practice and • time in practice 	T3 CAM legal may apply if given Conditional registration	No Or conditional	10 Or 20 if in practice
12	Medical Herbalist AQF 6 or 7 (no formal homeopathic studies or clinic practicum))	Supporting documents required		T3 CAM legal	no	10
13	Nurse or allied health professional. AQF 6 or 7	Supporting documents required		T3 CAM legal not required	no	10

	AHPRA registered; no homeopathic studies
14	Doula's (no homeopathy degree or advanced diploma)	Supporting documents required Plus PLI, SFA, WWC		T3 CAM legal	No Conditional- (post and anti-natal)	10
15	Bach flower practitioner; no homeopathic studies	Supporting documents required		T3 CAM legal	No	10
16	Tissue salt practitioner no homeopathic studies	Supporting documents required		T3 CAM legal	Conditional- can prescribe up to 12c only	10
17	Students or incomplete studies	Supporting documents required		T3	no	0
18	Qualified Homeopath; not in practice for >3 years	Supporting documents required		T3	no	10
19	Qualified homeopath; not registered, not practising >3 years (not intending to practise at this time)	Supporting documents required		T3	no	10

Currency in studies: courses to be considered current must have been completed in no more than 3 years from time of application or if in full time practice to completion, 5 years from time of application.