Overseas practitioner application for registration with the Australian Register of Homœopaths Ltd.

Practitioners with Overseas Qualifications

The Australian Register of Homœopaths Ltd. (ARoH) does not currently have reciprocal arrangements for recognition of qualifications gained overseas unless the qualification is from an accredited course, as listed on our website: click here.

If you are a practitioner with overseas qualifications, to gain registration with ARoH you should complete the following process:

1. Apply to the VETASSESS for evaluation of your qualifications

Applicants with overseas qualifications recognised by VETASSESS as equivalent to Australian degree standard or higher should apply to VETASSESS for the Complementary Health Therapy Assessment.

The direct link to the information can be found at:

<https://www.vetassess.com.au/skills-assessment-for-non-migration/complementary-health-therapies-assessment> and follow the instructions on that page (accessed 30/01/24)

Fees are detailed on the bottom of the page

Send the completed application form and all documents to: migrate@vetassess.com.au

Once the VETASSESS evaluation has been completed

2. Apply to AROH for Recognition of Current Competency (RCC):

Application for assessment of your RCC should be made using the Recognition of Current Competency Application Form. Click here

A fee of $250 applies, which includes a non-refundable administration fee of $50.

The guidelines to the AROH RCC are available on www.aroh.com.au.

Documentation to accompany your RCC consent form:

- A copy of your qualification certified by a Justice of the Peace
- A statement of Academic Transcript/VETASSESS documentation certified by a Justice of the Peace
- If the fee was paid by direct debit please attach copy of the receipt.

3. You will be assigned an AROH RCC assessor. Please note:

The RCC assessment must be undertaken by an AROH appointed assessor, who meets the following criteria:

- Is an AROH registrant
- Is appointed by AROH to carry out the RCC
- The AROH RCC assessor holds a current TAE Cert IV and any TAE updates required to stay current as an assessor
- The basis of the RCC assessment must be the National Competency Standards for Homoeopathy (1999).

4. RCC assessment

AROH will organise the RCC assessment with you and the appointed assessor, once the fee and consent form are received.

5. AROH registration

Once you have successfully applied to VETASSESS for an evaluation of your qualifications and you have completed the RCC assessment successfully, you can apply to AROH for registration using the following processes:

Preferred application method online: click here

If applying by email/post your application to AROH for registration should include

- The AROH application form download here
- The annual fee
- A copy of your Professional Indemnity Insurance ensuring that the certificate of currency shows the modality of homoeopathy listed on the policy (if insurer requires AROH registration number, then provisional registration may be granted providing all other requirements have been met. AROH registration will be active from date your insurance policy begins)
- A Current Senior First Aid Certificate (Level II).
- A copy of your Working With Children/Vulnerable People certificate

5. Once you have gained AROH registration you must

- Maintain annual professional indemnity insurance
- Hold a current first-aid certificate
- Provide evidence of Continuing Professional Development (CPD) annually. The CPD policy document, which includes a list of approved activities, can be downloaded from the “Policies and Guidelines” page on the AROH website.

Issues related to Health Fund Provider status

- Currently health funds do not provide recognition of homeopathy, as at 01.04.19

Thank you for applying for registration with ARoH.
